

Wisconsin's NO-CALL legislation preventing telemarketers and businesses from calling those listed is wonderful. If the FCC decides to trump state law, it will only show how deeply the FCC is tied to big business and is not heeding the will of the people. -- Dante wrote of the circles of hell, and those who vote in favor of banks and telemarkets, are surely heading for ring 8, where corrupt politicians are trapped in a river of burning pitch for eternity.